

The Grassland Society of Southern Australia Inc

Presents

The 2010 Mac Troup Memorial Lecture

Australian Agriculture: Challenges and Opportunities

David Crombie

President, National Farmers' Federation

This years Mac Troup Lecture promises to be informative and inspiring.

David will canvass the major issues impacting on Australian agriculture's ability to meet growing domestic and global food and fibre needs. With an Australian population tipped to top 25 million by 2050 – globally 9 billion – Australian farmers are already facing greater calls on their production to keep pace with population and consumer demands.
